

Chapter-1 A letter to God

The theme of "A Letter to God" by Gregorio Lopez Fuentes revolves around faith, hope, and the human tendency to rely on God in times of hardship. It also illustrates that sometimes your charity and good deed cannot be recognised.

Chapter-2 Nelson Mandela (Long walk to freedom)

The theme of "Nelson Mandela: Long Walk to Freedom" revolves around the struggle for justice, equality, and freedom. It highlights Mandela's resilience and commitment to fighting apartheid, the role of unity, the importance of leadership, and the power of forgiveness. The chapter emphasizes the sacrifices made to achieve a peaceful, democratic society.

Chapter- 3 Two stories about flying

The theme of "Two Stories about Flying" explores the courage, determination, and overcoming fear. The Young seagull overcomes his fear of flying through hard work & courage. In the black aeroplane a pilot saves his life miraculously.

Chapter- 4 From the diary of Anne Frank

The theme of "From the Diary of Anne Frank" revolves around the struggles of survival, hope, and the loss of innocence during the Holocaust. Anne's diary captures her emotional journey as a young Jewish girl in hiding, reflecting on human nature, identity, and the impact of war on individuals.

Chapter-5 Glimpses of India

The theme of "Glimpses of India" by Luella Dube revolves around the diverse and rich cultural heritage of India. The story highlights the beauty of Indian landscapes, traditions, and people. It emphasizes the importance of understanding and appreciating India's unity in diversity through its vibrant customs and history.

Chapter-6 Mijbil the otter

The theme of "Mijbil the Otter" by Gerald Durrell revolves around the love, bond and companionship between humans and animals. The story highlights challenges of caring for a wild animal. It emphasizes the importance of empathy, understanding, and the deep connection that can form between species.

Chapter- 7 Madam rides the Bus

The theme of "Madam Rides the Bus" by V. S. Naipaul revolves around the desire for independence, adventure and self-identity. The story highlights the emotional growth of a young girl, Valli, who wants to explore the world with freedom.

Chapter-8 The Sermon at Benares

The theme of "The Sermon at Benares" focuses on the Buddha's first teachings. It revolves around the acceptance of death and finding real meaning of the life. It illustrates compassion, enlightenment and personal transformation.

Chapter- 9 The proposal

The theme of "The Proposal" by Anton Chekhov revolves around the love and marriage. The play explains how anger and argument can spoil a relationship. Having arguments over petty things is extremely harmful and can destroy a relationship.

2ND BOOK

1. A Triumph of Surgery

The theme of "A Triumph of Surgery" by James Herriot highlights the problem of overpampering and overcaring. It explains the importance of care, empathy, and the responsibility of pet owners. The story shows the bond between humans and animals, with a focus on the humorous consequences of overindulgence and the professional skill needed to resolve the situation.

2. The Thief's Story

The theme of "The Thief's Story" by Ruskin Bond revolves around the kindness and transformation. It shows how a person can be changed through kindness and empathy.

3. The Midnight Visitor

The theme of "The Midnight Visitor" by Robert Arthur revolves around wit, intelligence, and the power of quick thinking. It shows that knowledge and wisdom are more powerful than other weapons.

4. A Question of Trust

The theme of "A Question of Trust" by Victor Canning revolves around irony, trust, and betrayal. It highlights how people hide their real face and there is no mutual trust among thieves .

Footprints without Feet

The theme of Footprints Without Feet revolves around the misuse of scientific discoveries and its harmful consequences. It shows how the power can be misused for personal gain.

6.The Making of a Scientist

The theme of The Making of a Scientist revolves around curiosity, dedication, and the nurturing role of supportive mentors and parents in shaping a scientist. It explains the value of observation, perseverance, and passion for learning, emphasizing that great discoveries arise from a desire to understand and explore the world.

7. The Necklace

The theme of The Necklace revolves around vanity, pride, and the consequences of materialism. It explores how societal expectations and the desire for status can lead to poor decisions. The story ultimately reveals the irony of life, highlighting the harsh consequences of vanity and greed.

8. Bholi

The theme of Bholi revolves around self-worth, courage, and education. It shows Bholi's journey from a timid, neglected girl to a confident woman who defies societal norms. The story highlights the importance of self-respect, overcoming adversity, and finding strength in one's own identity, challenging traditional views on beauty.

9. The Book That Saved the Earth

The theme of The Book That Saved the Earth focuses on the power of knowledge, imagination, and the preservation of culture. It emphasizes the impact of literature in shaping society and protecting humanity from destruction. The story explores how wisdom and creativity can triumph over ignorance and fear.