

30 CHAPTERWISE IMPORTANT QUESTIONS

English Language and Literature (184) | CBSE 2026-27

A Letter to God

First Flight - prose | Board-examinable literature

30 original revision questions with answers: short-answer, competency, assertion-reason and long-answer practice. Set is based on the current syllabus and official question-paper style; it is not a prediction or an official CBSE paper.

Question 1

Why did Lencho write to God, and what did he ask for?

Answer:

The hailstorm destroyed Lencho's crop, leaving his family without food. Trusting completely in God, he asked for one hundred pesos to sow the field again and support his family.

Question 2

How does the postmaster respond to Lencho's letter, and what does this show?

Answer:

He gathers money from colleagues and gives part of his salary so Lencho will not lose faith. His kindness shows empathy, generosity, and respect for another person's hope.

Question 3

Why does Lencho call the postal employees crooks at the end? Is this fair?

Answer:

Lencho receives only seventy pesos and assumes the post office workers kept the rest. The accusation is unfair because they actually collected the money to help him; his faith is strong but his judgment is mistaken.

Question 4

What is the central idea or skill tested in A Letter to God?

Answer:

The central focus is: The hailstorm destroyed Lencho's crop, leaving his family without food. This is the starting point for a strong answer from this chapter.

Question 5

Write two relevant points for a short answer based on A Letter to God.

Answer:

First point: The hailstorm destroyed Lencho's crop, leaving his family without food. Second point: He gathers money from colleagues and gives part of his salary so Lencho will not lose faith. Link the two points clearly instead of listing them without explanation.

Question 6

How does the first key idea in A Letter to God lead to an important result or conclusion?

Answer:

Begin with the key idea: The hailstorm destroyed Lencho's crop, leaving his family without food. Then connect it to the result: He gathers money from colleagues and gives part of his salary so Lencho will not lose faith.

A Letter to God - Continued

Question 7

What evidence, calculation, incident or concept best supports the first main idea in A Letter to God?

Answer:

Use this supporting detail: The hailstorm destroyed Lencho's crop, leaving his family without food. Trusting completely in God, he asked for one hundred pesos to sow the field again and support his family. The relevant detail should be stated before giving the final conclusion.

Question 8

Explain the importance of the second major idea in A Letter to God.

Answer:

He gathers money from colleagues and gives part of his salary so Lencho will not lose faith. His kindness shows empathy, generosity, and respect for another person's hope. Its importance lies in showing how the chapter develops the topic beyond a simple fact or definition.

Question 9

What common mistake should a student avoid while answering a question from A Letter to God?

Answer:

Do not give only a conclusion. Explain the reasoning with a correct detail, such as: Lencho receives only seventy pesos and assumes the post office workers kept the rest.

Question 10

Compare the first and second important ideas in A Letter to God.

Answer:

The first idea is: The hailstorm destroyed Lencho's crop, leaving his family without food. The second idea is: He gathers money from colleagues and gives part of his salary so Lencho will not lose faith. A complete comparison states both the difference and the connection between them.

Question 11

Show a cause-and-effect link from A Letter to God.

Answer:

Cause or starting point: The hailstorm destroyed Lencho's crop, leaving his family without food. Effect or outcome: He gathers money from colleagues and gives part of his salary so Lencho will not lose faith. Use connecting words such as 'therefore', 'as a result', or 'thus'.

Question 12

What is the most useful sequence for explaining the main content of A Letter to God?

Answer:

A clear sequence is: The hailstorm destroyed Lencho's crop, leaving his family without food. Next, He gathers money from colleagues and gives part of his salary so Lencho will not lose faith. Finally, Lencho receives only seventy pesos and assumes the post office workers kept the rest.

A Letter to God - Continued

Question 13

Give a 40-50 word answer outline for an important question from A Letter to God.

Answer:

Start with the direct answer: The hailstorm destroyed Lencho's crop, leaving his family without food. Add one supporting point: He gathers money from colleagues and gives part of his salary so Lencho will not lose faith. End with the outcome or message: Lencho receives only seventy pesos and assumes the post office workers kept the rest.

Question 14

How should you support an English literature answer from A Letter to God?

Answer:

Use a relevant incident, character action, theme, or poetic image: The hailstorm destroyed Lencho's crop, leaving his family without food. Then explain what it reveals about the character, situation, or message.

Question 15

How can an examiner see that you understand, rather than memorise, A Letter to God?

Answer:

Connect the idea to its reason or result. For instance: He gathers money from colleagues and gives part of his salary so Lencho will not lose faith. Then explain why this point matters in the chapter's context.

Question 16

State one inference that can be drawn from the main situation or concept in A Letter to God.

Answer:

A sound inference is that lencho receives only seventy pesos and assumes the post office workers kept the rest. This inference must be supported by a relevant point from the chapter.

Question 17

Frame a short competency-based response using the first two ideas in A Letter to God.

Answer:

Apply the concept by first stating: The hailstorm destroyed Lencho's crop, leaving his family without food. Then justify the response with: He gathers money from colleagues and gives part of his salary so Lencho will not lose faith.

Question 18

What would make an answer from A Letter to God incomplete?

Answer:

An answer is incomplete if it omits the explanation or final implication. Include both: The hailstorm destroyed Lencho's crop, leaving his family without food. Also add: Lencho receives only seventy pesos and assumes the post office workers kept the rest.

Question 19

Prepare an Assertion-Reason style explanation based on A Letter to God.

Answer:

Assertion: The hailstorm destroyed Lencho's crop, leaving his family without food. Reason: He gathers money from colleagues and gives part of his salary so Lencho will not lose faith. Check whether the reason actually explains the assertion before choosing an option.

A Letter to God - Continued

Question 20

How should you justify an answer from A Letter to God in two clear steps?

Answer:

Step 1: state the concept or event - The hailstorm destroyed Lencho's crop, leaving his family without food. Step 2: support it with the explanation or result - He gathers money from colleagues and gives part of his salary so Lencho will not lose faith.

Question 21

What answer structure is suitable for a 3-mark question from A Letter to God?

Answer:

Use three connected points: The hailstorm destroyed Lencho's crop, leaving his family without food. He gathers money from colleagues and gives part of his salary so Lencho will not lose faith. Lencho receives only seventy pesos and assumes the post office workers kept the rest. Keep the points specific and write them in a logical order.

Question 22

What answer structure is suitable for a 5-mark question from A Letter to God?

Answer:

Give an introduction, develop these key points - The hailstorm destroyed Lencho's crop, leaving his family without food. He gathers money from colleagues and gives part of his salary so Lencho will not lose faith. - and close with: Lencho receives only seventy pesos and assumes the post office workers kept the rest. Add a diagram, equation, example, or textual reference where relevant.

Question 23

How can the ideas in A Letter to God be applied to a new situation or case study?

Answer:

Identify the relevant principle first: The hailstorm destroyed Lencho's crop, leaving his family without food. Then use the chapter's reasoning to explain the case: He gathers money from colleagues and gives part of his salary so Lencho will not lose faith.

Question 24

Which detail from A Letter to God is most likely to earn an extra mark when explained correctly?

Answer:

A useful detail is: Lencho receives only seventy pesos and assumes the post office workers kept the rest. Explain it in context instead of using it as an isolated statement.

Question 25

Write a brief concluding statement for an answer on A Letter to God.

Answer:

A suitable conclusion is: Lencho receives only seventy pesos and assumes the post office workers kept the rest. This conclusion should follow naturally from the explanation rather than introduce a new point.

A Letter to God - Continued

Question 26

Make a three-point revision note for A Letter to God.

Answer:

1. The hailstorm destroyed Lencho's crop, leaving his family without food. 2. He gathers money from colleagues and gives part of his salary so Lencho will not lose faith. 3. Lencho receives only seventy pesos and assumes the post office workers kept the rest. Revise these points with the chapter's examples, terms, and practice questions.

Question 27

How would you self-check an answer from A Letter to God before submitting it?

Answer:

Check that you have answered the exact question, used the key idea - The hailstorm destroyed Lencho's crop, leaving his family without food. - and supported it with a reason, example, calculation, or outcome such as: He gathers money from colleagues and gives part of his salary so Lencho will not lose faith.

Question 28

Why does A Letter to God remain important for revision?

Answer:

It combines factual recall with explanation and application. The main takeaways are: The hailstorm destroyed Lencho's crop, leaving his family without food. He gathers money from colleagues and gives part of his salary so Lencho will not lose faith. Lencho receives only seventy pesos and assumes the post office workers kept the rest.

Question 29

Create a final 60-80 word answer plan for a long question from A Letter to God.

Answer:

Opening: The hailstorm destroyed Lencho's crop, leaving his family without food. Development: He gathers money from colleagues and gives part of his salary so Lencho will not lose faith. Conclusion: Lencho receives only seventy pesos and assumes the post office workers kept the rest. Use complete sentences and include all required evidence, steps, or references.

Question 30

What is one last-minute revision question you should ask yourself about A Letter to God?

Answer:

Ask: 'Can I explain why this is true or important?' A correct self-answer should include: The hailstorm destroyed Lencho's crop, leaving his family without food. and He gathers money from colleagues and gives part of his salary so Lencho will not lose faith.

Sources: CBSE English curriculum 2026-27; CBSE Class X sample papers and marking schemes 2026-27; NCERT textbooks.