

30 CHAPTERWISE IMPORTANT QUESTIONS

English Language and Literature (184) | CBSE 2026-27

Dust of Snow

First Flight - poem | Board-examinable literature

30 original revision questions with answers: short-answer, competency, assertion-reason and long-answer practice. Set is based on the current syllabus and official question-paper style; it is not a prediction or an official CBSE paper.

Question 1

How does the small incident in the poem change the speaker's mood?

Answer:

A crow shakes snow from a hemlock tree onto the speaker. This unexpected moment refreshes him and saves part of a day he had been regretting.

Question 2

Why are the crow and hemlock tree surprising choices for a joyful moment?

Answer:

Both are often associated with unpleasant or gloomy images. The poet uses them to show that beauty and hope can come from ordinary, unexpected places.

Question 3

What message about nature does the poem suggest?

Answer:

A brief contact with nature can interrupt negative thinking and change one's outlook. Even a small event may make a difficult day feel worthwhile.

Question 4

What is the central idea or skill tested in Dust of Snow?

Answer:

The central focus is: A crow shakes snow from a hemlock tree onto the speaker. This is the starting point for a strong answer from this chapter.

Question 5

Write two relevant points for a short answer based on Dust of Snow.

Answer:

First point: A crow shakes snow from a hemlock tree onto the speaker. Second point: Both are often associated with unpleasant or gloomy images. Link the two points clearly instead of listing them without explanation.

Question 6

How does the first key idea in Dust of Snow lead to an important result or conclusion?

Answer:

Begin with the key idea: A crow shakes snow from a hemlock tree onto the speaker. Then connect it to the result: Both are often associated with unpleasant or gloomy images.

Dust of Snow - Continued

Question 7

What evidence, calculation, incident or concept best supports the first main idea in Dust of Snow?

Answer:

Use this supporting detail: A crow shakes snow from a hemlock tree onto the speaker. This unexpected moment refreshes him and saves part of a day he had been regretting. The relevant detail should be stated before giving the final conclusion.

Question 8

Explain the importance of the second major idea in Dust of Snow.

Answer:

Both are often associated with unpleasant or gloomy images. The poet uses them to show that beauty and hope can come from ordinary, unexpected places. Its importance lies in showing how the chapter develops the topic beyond a simple fact or definition.

Question 9

What common mistake should a student avoid while answering a question from Dust of Snow?

Answer:

Do not give only a conclusion. Explain the reasoning with a correct detail, such as: A brief contact with nature can interrupt negative thinking and change one's outlook.

Question 10

Compare the first and second important ideas in Dust of Snow.

Answer:

The first idea is: A crow shakes snow from a hemlock tree onto the speaker. The second idea is: Both are often associated with unpleasant or gloomy images. A complete comparison states both the difference and the connection between them.

Question 11

Show a cause-and-effect link from Dust of Snow.

Answer:

Cause or starting point: A crow shakes snow from a hemlock tree onto the speaker. Effect or outcome: Both are often associated with unpleasant or gloomy images. Use connecting words such as 'therefore', 'as a result', or 'thus'.

Question 12

What is the most useful sequence for explaining the main content of Dust of Snow?

Answer:

A clear sequence is: A crow shakes snow from a hemlock tree onto the speaker. Next, Both are often associated with unpleasant or gloomy images. Finally, A brief contact with nature can interrupt negative thinking and change one's outlook.

Dust of Snow - Continued

Question 13

Give a 40-50 word answer outline for an important question from Dust of Snow.

Answer:

Start with the direct answer: A crow shakes snow from a hemlock tree onto the speaker. Add one supporting point: Both are often associated with unpleasant or gloomy images. End with the outcome or message: A brief contact with nature can interrupt negative thinking and change one's outlook.

Question 14

How should you support an English literature answer from Dust of Snow?

Answer:

Use a relevant incident, character action, theme, or poetic image: A crow shakes snow from a hemlock tree onto the speaker. Then explain what it reveals about the character, situation, or message.

Question 15

How can an examiner see that you understand, rather than memorise, Dust of Snow?

Answer:

Connect the idea to its reason or result. For instance: Both are often associated with unpleasant or gloomy images. Then explain why this point matters in the chapter's context.

Question 16

State one inference that can be drawn from the main situation or concept in Dust of Snow.

Answer:

A sound inference is that a brief contact with nature can interrupt negative thinking and change one's outlook. This inference must be supported by a relevant point from the chapter.

Question 17

Frame a short competency-based response using the first two ideas in Dust of Snow.

Answer:

Apply the concept by first stating: A crow shakes snow from a hemlock tree onto the speaker. Then justify the response with: Both are often associated with unpleasant or gloomy images.

Question 18

What would make an answer from Dust of Snow incomplete?

Answer:

An answer is incomplete if it omits the explanation or final implication. Include both: A crow shakes snow from a hemlock tree onto the speaker. Also add: A brief contact with nature can interrupt negative thinking and change one's outlook.

Question 19

Prepare an Assertion-Reason style explanation based on Dust of Snow.

Answer:

Assertion: A crow shakes snow from a hemlock tree onto the speaker. Reason: Both are often associated with unpleasant or gloomy images. Check whether the reason actually explains the assertion before choosing an option.

Dust of Snow - Continued

Question 20

How should you justify an answer from Dust of Snow in two clear steps?

Answer:

Step 1: state the concept or event - A crow shakes snow from a hemlock tree onto the speaker. Step 2: support it with the explanation or result - Both are often associated with unpleasant or gloomy images.

Question 21

What answer structure is suitable for a 3-mark question from Dust of Snow?

Answer:

Use three connected points: A crow shakes snow from a hemlock tree onto the speaker. Both are often associated with unpleasant or gloomy images. A brief contact with nature can interrupt negative thinking and change one's outlook. Keep the points specific and write them in a logical order.

Question 22

What answer structure is suitable for a 5-mark question from Dust of Snow?

Answer:

Give an introduction, develop these key points - A crow shakes snow from a hemlock tree onto the speaker. Both are often associated with unpleasant or gloomy images. - and close with: A brief contact with nature can interrupt negative thinking and change one's outlook. Add a diagram, equation, example, or textual reference where relevant.

Question 23

How can the ideas in Dust of Snow be applied to a new situation or case study?

Answer:

Identify the relevant principle first: A crow shakes snow from a hemlock tree onto the speaker. Then use the chapter's reasoning to explain the case: Both are often associated with unpleasant or gloomy images.

Question 24

Which detail from Dust of Snow is most likely to earn an extra mark when explained correctly?

Answer:

A useful detail is: A brief contact with nature can interrupt negative thinking and change one's outlook. Explain it in context instead of using it as an isolated statement.

Question 25

Write a brief concluding statement for an answer on Dust of Snow.

Answer:

A suitable conclusion is: A brief contact with nature can interrupt negative thinking and change one's outlook. This conclusion should follow naturally from the explanation rather than introduce a new point.

Question 26

Make a three-point revision note for Dust of Snow.

Answer:

1. A crow shakes snow from a hemlock tree onto the speaker. 2. Both are often associated with unpleasant or gloomy images. 3. A brief contact with nature can interrupt negative thinking and change one's outlook. Revise these points with the chapter's examples, terms, and practice questions.

Dust of Snow - Continued

Question 27

How would you self-check an answer from Dust of Snow before submitting it?

Answer:

Check that you have answered the exact question, used the key idea - A crow shakes snow from a hemlock tree onto the speaker. - and supported it with a reason, example, calculation, or outcome such as: Both are often associated with unpleasant or gloomy images.

Question 28

Why does Dust of Snow remain important for revision?

Answer:

It combines factual recall with explanation and application. The main takeaways are: A crow shakes snow from a hemlock tree onto the speaker. Both are often associated with unpleasant or gloomy images. A brief contact with nature can interrupt negative thinking and change one's outlook.

Question 29

Create a final 60-80 word answer plan for a long question from Dust of Snow.

Answer:

Opening: A crow shakes snow from a hemlock tree onto the speaker. Development: Both are often associated with unpleasant or gloomy images. Conclusion: A brief contact with nature can interrupt negative thinking and change one's outlook. Use complete sentences and include all required evidence, steps, or references.

Question 30

What is one last-minute revision question you should ask yourself about Dust of Snow?

Answer:

Ask: 'Can I explain why this is true or important?' A correct self-answer should include: A crow shakes snow from a hemlock tree onto the speaker. and Both are often associated with unpleasant or gloomy images.

Sources: CBSE English curriculum 2026-27; CBSE Class X sample papers and marking schemes 2026-27; NCERT textbooks.