

30 CHAPTERWISE IMPORTANT QUESTIONS

English Language and Literature (184) | CBSE 2026-27

Fire and Ice

First Flight - poem | Board-examinable literature

30 original revision questions with answers: short-answer, competency, assertion-reason and long-answer practice. Set is based on the current syllabus and official question-paper style; it is not a prediction or an official CBSE paper.

Question 1

What do fire and ice symbolise in the poem?

Answer:

Fire represents uncontrolled desire, while ice represents hatred or cold indifference. The two forces differ in feeling but both can destroy.

Question 2

Why does the speaker consider both fire and ice capable of ending the world?

Answer:

Desire can grow into greed and conflict, while hatred can freeze compassion and create lasting harm. The poem argues that either extreme can be destructive.

Question 3

How does the poem create a serious message in a brief form?

Answer:

It uses a simple debate about the world's end as an extended metaphor for human emotions. Its compact contrast makes the warning memorable and direct.

Question 4

What is the central idea or skill tested in Fire and Ice?

Answer:

The central focus is: Fire represents uncontrolled desire, while ice represents hatred or cold indifference. This is the starting point for a strong answer from this chapter.

Question 5

Write two relevant points for a short answer based on Fire and Ice.

Answer:

First point: Fire represents uncontrolled desire, while ice represents hatred or cold indifference. Second point: Desire can grow into greed and conflict, while hatred can freeze compassion and create lasting harm. Link the two points clearly instead of listing them without explanation.

Question 6

How does the first key idea in Fire and Ice lead to an important result or conclusion?

Answer:

Begin with the key idea: Fire represents uncontrolled desire, while ice represents hatred or cold indifference. Then connect it to the result: Desire can grow into greed and conflict, while hatred can freeze compassion and create lasting harm.

Fire and Ice - Continued

Question 7

What evidence, calculation, incident or concept best supports the first main idea in Fire and Ice?

Answer:

Use this supporting detail: Fire represents uncontrolled desire, while ice represents hatred or cold indifference. The two forces differ in feeling but both can destroy. The relevant detail should be stated before giving the final conclusion.

Question 8

Explain the importance of the second major idea in Fire and Ice.

Answer:

Desire can grow into greed and conflict, while hatred can freeze compassion and create lasting harm. The poem argues that either extreme can be destructive. Its importance lies in showing how the chapter develops the topic beyond a simple fact or definition.

Question 9

What common mistake should a student avoid while answering a question from Fire and Ice?

Answer:

Do not give only a conclusion. Explain the reasoning with a correct detail, such as: It uses a simple debate about the world's end as an extended metaphor for human emotions.

Question 10

Compare the first and second important ideas in Fire and Ice.

Answer:

The first idea is: Fire represents uncontrolled desire, while ice represents hatred or cold indifference. The second idea is: Desire can grow into greed and conflict, while hatred can freeze compassion and create lasting harm. A complete comparison states both the difference and the connection between them.

Question 11

Show a cause-and-effect link from Fire and Ice.

Answer:

Cause or starting point: Fire represents uncontrolled desire, while ice represents hatred or cold indifference. Effect or outcome: Desire can grow into greed and conflict, while hatred can freeze compassion and create lasting harm. Use connecting words such as 'therefore', 'as a result', or 'thus'.

Question 12

What is the most useful sequence for explaining the main content of Fire and Ice?

Answer:

A clear sequence is: Fire represents uncontrolled desire, while ice represents hatred or cold indifference. Next, Desire can grow into greed and conflict, while hatred can freeze compassion and create lasting harm. Finally, It uses a simple debate about the world's end as an extended metaphor for human emotions.

Fire and Ice - Continued

Question 13

Give a 40-50 word answer outline for an important question from Fire and Ice.

Answer:

Start with the direct answer: Fire represents uncontrolled desire, while ice represents hatred or cold indifference. Add one supporting point: Desire can grow into greed and conflict, while hatred can freeze compassion and create lasting harm. End with the outcome or message: It uses a simple debate about the world's end as an extended metaphor for human emotions.

Question 14

How should you support an English literature answer from Fire and Ice?

Answer:

Use a relevant incident, character action, theme, or poetic image: Fire represents uncontrolled desire, while ice represents hatred or cold indifference. Then explain what it reveals about the character, situation, or message.

Question 15

How can an examiner see that you understand, rather than memorise, Fire and Ice?

Answer:

Connect the idea to its reason or result. For instance: Desire can grow into greed and conflict, while hatred can freeze compassion and create lasting harm. Then explain why this point matters in the chapter's context.

Question 16

State one inference that can be drawn from the main situation or concept in Fire and Ice.

Answer:

A sound inference is that it uses a simple debate about the world's end as an extended metaphor for human emotions. This inference must be supported by a relevant point from the chapter.

Question 17

Frame a short competency-based response using the first two ideas in Fire and Ice.

Answer:

Apply the concept by first stating: Fire represents uncontrolled desire, while ice represents hatred or cold indifference. Then justify the response with: Desire can grow into greed and conflict, while hatred can freeze compassion and create lasting harm.

Question 18

What would make an answer from Fire and Ice incomplete?

Answer:

An answer is incomplete if it omits the explanation or final implication. Include both: Fire represents uncontrolled desire, while ice represents hatred or cold indifference. Also add: It uses a simple debate about the world's end as an extended metaphor for human emotions.

Question 19

Prepare an Assertion-Reason style explanation based on Fire and Ice.

Answer:

Assertion: Fire represents uncontrolled desire, while ice represents hatred or cold indifference. Reason: Desire can grow into greed and conflict, while hatred can freeze compassion and create lasting harm. Check whether the reason actually explains the assertion before choosing an option.

Fire and Ice - Continued

Question 20

How should you justify an answer from Fire and Ice in two clear steps?

Answer:

Step 1: state the concept or event - Fire represents uncontrolled desire, while ice represents hatred or cold indifference. Step 2: support it with the explanation or result - Desire can grow into greed and conflict, while hatred can freeze compassion and create lasting harm.

Question 21

What answer structure is suitable for a 3-mark question from Fire and Ice?

Answer:

Use three connected points: Fire represents uncontrolled desire, while ice represents hatred or cold indifference. Desire can grow into greed and conflict, while hatred can freeze compassion and create lasting harm. It uses a simple debate about the world's end as an extended metaphor for human emotions. Keep the points specific and write them in a logical order.

Question 22

What answer structure is suitable for a 5-mark question from Fire and Ice?

Answer:

Give an introduction, develop these key points - Fire represents uncontrolled desire, while ice represents hatred or cold indifference. Desire can grow into greed and conflict, while hatred can freeze compassion and create lasting harm. - and close with: It uses a simple debate about the world's end as an extended metaphor for human emotions. Add a diagram, equation, example, or textual reference where relevant.

Question 23

How can the ideas in Fire and Ice be applied to a new situation or case study?

Answer:

Identify the relevant principle first: Fire represents uncontrolled desire, while ice represents hatred or cold indifference. Then use the chapter's reasoning to explain the case: Desire can grow into greed and conflict, while hatred can freeze compassion and create lasting harm.

Question 24

Which detail from Fire and Ice is most likely to earn an extra mark when explained correctly?

Answer:

A useful detail is: It uses a simple debate about the world's end as an extended metaphor for human emotions. Explain it in context instead of using it as an isolated statement.

Question 25

Write a brief concluding statement for an answer on Fire and Ice.

Answer:

A suitable conclusion is: It uses a simple debate about the world's end as an extended metaphor for human emotions. This conclusion should follow naturally from the explanation rather than introduce a new point.

Fire and Ice - Continued

Question 26

Make a three-point revision note for Fire and Ice.

Answer:

1. Fire represents uncontrolled desire, while ice represents hatred or cold indifference. 2. Desire can grow into greed and conflict, while hatred can freeze compassion and create lasting harm. 3. It uses a simple debate about the world's end as an extended metaphor for human emotions. Revise these points with the chapter's examples, terms, and practice questions.

Question 27

How would you self-check an answer from Fire and Ice before submitting it?

Answer:

Check that you have answered the exact question, used the key idea - Fire represents uncontrolled desire, while ice represents hatred or cold indifference. - and supported it with a reason, example, calculation, or outcome such as: Desire can grow into greed and conflict, while hatred can freeze compassion and create lasting harm.

Question 28

Why does Fire and Ice remain important for revision?

Answer:

It combines factual recall with explanation and application. The main takeaways are: Fire represents uncontrolled desire, while ice represents hatred or cold indifference. Desire can grow into greed and conflict, while hatred can freeze compassion and create lasting harm. It uses a simple debate about the world's end as an extended metaphor for human emotions.

Question 29

Create a final 60-80 word answer plan for a long question from Fire and Ice.

Answer:

Opening: Fire represents uncontrolled desire, while ice represents hatred or cold indifference. Development: Desire can grow into greed and conflict, while hatred can freeze compassion and create lasting harm. Conclusion: It uses a simple debate about the world's end as an extended metaphor for human emotions. Use complete sentences and include all required evidence, steps, or references.

Question 30

What is one last-minute revision question you should ask yourself about Fire and Ice?

Answer:

Ask: 'Can I explain why this is true or important?' A correct self-answer should include: Fire represents uncontrolled desire, while ice represents hatred or cold indifference. and Desire can grow into greed and conflict, while hatred can freeze compassion and create lasting harm.

Sources: CBSE English curriculum 2026-27; CBSE Class X sample papers and marking schemes 2026-27; NCERT textbooks.