

30 CHAPTERWISE IMPORTANT QUESTIONS

English Language and Literature (184) | CBSE 2026-27

From the Diary of Anne Frank

First Flight - prose | Board-examinable literature

30 original revision questions with answers: short-answer, competency, assertion-reason and long-answer practice. Set is based on the current syllabus and official question-paper style; it is not a prediction or an official CBSE paper.

Question 1

Why does Anne decide to keep a diary, and why does she call it 'Kitty'?

Answer:

Anne has family and friends but feels she cannot share her innermost thoughts with them. She treats the diary as a patient, trusted friend and names it Kitty.

Question 2

How does Anne's essay about a talkative student reveal her wit?

Answer:

Instead of merely accepting the punishment, Anne writes humorous arguments that defend talking as a student trait. Her playful writing wins the teacher over and shows her confidence and creativity.

Question 3

What qualities of Anne are visible in this extract from her diary?

Answer:

Anne is observant, honest, lively, and self-aware. She can laugh at herself, express strong opinions, and use writing to understand her feelings.

Question 4

What is the central idea or skill tested in From the Diary of Anne Frank?

Answer:

The central focus is: Anne has family and friends but feels she cannot share her innermost thoughts with them. This is the starting point for a strong answer from this chapter.

Question 5

Write two relevant points for a short answer based on From the Diary of Anne Frank.

Answer:

First point: Anne has family and friends but feels she cannot share her innermost thoughts with them.

Second point: Instead of merely accepting the punishment, Anne writes humorous arguments that defend talking as a student trait. Link the two points clearly instead of listing them without explanation.

Question 6

How does the first key idea in From the Diary of Anne Frank lead to an important result or conclusion?

Answer:

Begin with the key idea: Anne has family and friends but feels she cannot share her innermost thoughts with them. Then connect it to the result: Instead of merely accepting the punishment, Anne writes humorous arguments that defend talking as a student trait.

From the Diary of Anne Frank - Continued

Question 7

What evidence, calculation, incident or concept best supports the first main idea in From the Diary of Anne Frank?

Answer:

Use this supporting detail: Anne has family and friends but feels she cannot share her innermost thoughts with them. She treats the diary as a patient, trusted friend and names it Kitty. The relevant detail should be stated before giving the final conclusion.

Question 8

Explain the importance of the second major idea in From the Diary of Anne Frank.

Answer:

Instead of merely accepting the punishment, Anne writes humorous arguments that defend talking as a student trait. Her playful writing wins the teacher over and shows her confidence and creativity. Its importance lies in showing how the chapter develops the topic beyond a simple fact or definition.

Question 9

What common mistake should a student avoid while answering a question from From the Diary of Anne Frank?

Answer:

Do not give only a conclusion. Explain the reasoning with a correct detail, such as: Anne is observant, honest, lively, and self-aware.

Question 10

Compare the first and second important ideas in From the Diary of Anne Frank.

Answer:

The first idea is: Anne has family and friends but feels she cannot share her innermost thoughts with them. The second idea is: Instead of merely accepting the punishment, Anne writes humorous arguments that defend talking as a student trait. A complete comparison states both the difference and the connection between them.

Question 11

Show a cause-and-effect link from From the Diary of Anne Frank.

Answer:

Cause or starting point: Anne has family and friends but feels she cannot share her innermost thoughts with them. Effect or outcome: Instead of merely accepting the punishment, Anne writes humorous arguments that defend talking as a student trait. Use connecting words such as 'therefore', 'as a result', or 'thus'.

Question 12

What is the most useful sequence for explaining the main content of From the Diary of Anne Frank?

Answer:

A clear sequence is: Anne has family and friends but feels she cannot share her innermost thoughts with them. Next, Instead of merely accepting the punishment, Anne writes humorous arguments that defend talking as a student trait. Finally, Anne is observant, honest, lively, and self-aware.

From the Diary of Anne Frank - Continued

Question 13

Give a 40-50 word answer outline for an important question from From the Diary of Anne Frank.

Answer:

Start with the direct answer: Anne has family and friends but feels she cannot share her innermost thoughts with them. Add one supporting point: Instead of merely accepting the punishment, Anne writes humorous arguments that defend talking as a student trait. End with the outcome or message: Anne is observant, honest, lively, and self-aware.

Question 14

How should you support an English literature answer from From the Diary of Anne Frank?

Answer:

Use a relevant incident, character action, theme, or poetic image: Anne has family and friends but feels she cannot share her innermost thoughts with them. Then explain what it reveals about the character, situation, or message.

Question 15

How can an examiner see that you understand, rather than memorise, From the Diary of Anne Frank?

Answer:

Connect the idea to its reason or result. For instance: Instead of merely accepting the punishment, Anne writes humorous arguments that defend talking as a student trait. Then explain why this point matters in the chapter's context.

Question 16

State one inference that can be drawn from the main situation or concept in From the Diary of Anne Frank.

Answer:

A sound inference is that Anne is observant, honest, lively, and self-aware. This inference must be supported by a relevant point from the chapter.

Question 17

Frame a short competency-based response using the first two ideas in From the Diary of Anne Frank.

Answer:

Apply the concept by first stating: Anne has family and friends but feels she cannot share her innermost thoughts with them. Then justify the response with: Instead of merely accepting the punishment, Anne writes humorous arguments that defend talking as a student trait.

Question 18

What would make an answer from From the Diary of Anne Frank incomplete?

Answer:

An answer is incomplete if it omits the explanation or final implication. Include both: Anne has family and friends but feels she cannot share her innermost thoughts with them. Also add: Anne is observant, honest, lively, and self-aware.

From the Diary of Anne Frank - Continued

Question 19

Prepare an Assertion-Reason style explanation based on From the Diary of Anne Frank.

Answer:

Assertion: Anne has family and friends but feels she cannot share her innermost thoughts with them.

Reason: Instead of merely accepting the punishment, Anne writes humorous arguments that defend talking as a student trait. Check whether the reason actually explains the assertion before choosing an option.

Question 20

How should you justify an answer from From the Diary of Anne Frank in two clear steps?

Answer:

Step 1: state the concept or event - Anne has family and friends but feels she cannot share her innermost thoughts with them. Step 2: support it with the explanation or result - Instead of merely accepting the punishment, Anne writes humorous arguments that defend talking as a student trait.

Question 21

What answer structure is suitable for a 3-mark question from From the Diary of Anne Frank?

Answer:

Use three connected points: Anne has family and friends but feels she cannot share her innermost thoughts with them. Instead of merely accepting the punishment, Anne writes humorous arguments that defend talking as a student trait. Anne is observant, honest, lively, and self-aware. Keep the points specific and write them in a logical order.

Question 22

What answer structure is suitable for a 5-mark question from From the Diary of Anne Frank?

Answer:

Give an introduction, develop these key points - Anne has family and friends but feels she cannot share her innermost thoughts with them. Instead of merely accepting the punishment, Anne writes humorous arguments that defend talking as a student trait. - and close with: Anne is observant, honest, lively, and self-aware. Add a diagram, equation, example, or textual reference where relevant.

Question 23

How can the ideas in From the Diary of Anne Frank be applied to a new situation or case study?

Answer:

Identify the relevant principle first: Anne has family and friends but feels she cannot share her innermost thoughts with them. Then use the chapter's reasoning to explain the case: Instead of merely accepting the punishment, Anne writes humorous arguments that defend talking as a student trait.

Question 24

Which detail from From the Diary of Anne Frank is most likely to earn an extra mark when explained correctly?

Answer:

A useful detail is: Anne is observant, honest, lively, and self-aware. Explain it in context instead of using it as an isolated statement.

From the Diary of Anne Frank - Continued

Question 25

Write a brief concluding statement for an answer on From the Diary of Anne Frank.

Answer:

A suitable conclusion is: Anne is observant, honest, lively, and self-aware. This conclusion should follow naturally from the explanation rather than introduce a new point.

Question 26

Make a three-point revision note for From the Diary of Anne Frank.

Answer:

1. Anne has family and friends but feels she cannot share her innermost thoughts with them. 2. Instead of merely accepting the punishment, Anne writes humorous arguments that defend talking as a student trait. 3. Anne is observant, honest, lively, and self-aware. Revise these points with the chapter's examples, terms, and practice questions.

Question 27

How would you self-check an answer from From the Diary of Anne Frank before submitting it?

Answer:

Check that you have answered the exact question, used the key idea - Anne has family and friends but feels she cannot share her innermost thoughts with them. - and supported it with a reason, example, calculation, or outcome such as: Instead of merely accepting the punishment, Anne writes humorous arguments that defend talking as a student trait.

Question 28

Why does From the Diary of Anne Frank remain important for revision?

Answer:

It combines factual recall with explanation and application. The main takeaways are: Anne has family and friends but feels she cannot share her innermost thoughts with them. Instead of merely accepting the punishment, Anne writes humorous arguments that defend talking as a student trait. Anne is observant, honest, lively, and self-aware.

Question 29

Create a final 60-80 word answer plan for a long question from From the Diary of Anne Frank.

Answer:

Opening: Anne has family and friends but feels she cannot share her innermost thoughts with them. Development: Instead of merely accepting the punishment, Anne writes humorous arguments that defend talking as a student trait. Conclusion: Anne is observant, honest, lively, and self-aware. Use complete sentences and include all required evidence, steps, or references.

Question 30

What is one last-minute revision question you should ask yourself about From the Diary of Anne Frank?

Answer:

Ask: 'Can I explain why this is true or important?' A correct self-answer should include: Anne has family and friends but feels she cannot share her innermost thoughts with them. and Instead of merely accepting the punishment, Anne writes humorous arguments that defend talking as a student trait.

Sources: CBSE English curriculum 2026-27; CBSE Class X sample papers and marking schemes 2026-27; NCERT textbooks.