

30 CHAPTERWISE IMPORTANT QUESTIONS

English Language and Literature (184) | CBSE 2026-27

Glimpses of India

First Flight - prose | Board-examinable literature

30 original revision questions with answers: short-answer, competency, assertion-reason and long-answer practice. Set is based on the current syllabus and official question-paper style; it is not a prediction or an official CBSE paper.

Question 1

How does the baker remain part of Goan life in 'A Baker from Goa'?

Answer:

The baker's daily arrival, traditional dress, and bread are woven into village routines and celebrations. The account shows how food and occupations preserve cultural memory.

Question 2

What makes Coorg distinctive in 'Coorg'?

Answer:

Coorg is presented through its evergreen landscape, coffee estates, wildlife, and hospitality. The chapter also connects the region with a proud martial tradition and outdoor adventure.

Question 3

What contrast about tea is presented in 'Tea from Assam'?

Answer:

Tea is both an everyday drink and a product with a long history. The travellers discuss its legends and cultivation while observing the extensive tea gardens of Assam.

Question 4

What is the central idea or skill tested in Glimpses of India?

Answer:

The central focus is: The baker's daily arrival, traditional dress, and bread are woven into village routines and celebrations. This is the starting point for a strong answer from this chapter.

Question 5

Write two relevant points for a short answer based on Glimpses of India.

Answer:

First point: The baker's daily arrival, traditional dress, and bread are woven into village routines and celebrations. Second point: Coorg is presented through its evergreen landscape, coffee estates, wildlife, and hospitality. Link the two points clearly instead of listing them without explanation.

Question 6

How does the first key idea in Glimpses of India lead to an important result or conclusion?

Answer:

Begin with the key idea: The baker's daily arrival, traditional dress, and bread are woven into village routines and celebrations. Then connect it to the result: Coorg is presented through its evergreen landscape, coffee estates, wildlife, and hospitality.

Glimpses of India - Continued

Question 7

What evidence, calculation, incident or concept best supports the first main idea in Glimpses of India?

Answer:

Use this supporting detail: The baker's daily arrival, traditional dress, and bread are woven into village routines and celebrations. The account shows how food and occupations preserve cultural memory. The relevant detail should be stated before giving the final conclusion.

Question 8

Explain the importance of the second major idea in Glimpses of India.

Answer:

Coorg is presented through its evergreen landscape, coffee estates, wildlife, and hospitality. The chapter also connects the region with a proud martial tradition and outdoor adventure. Its importance lies in showing how the chapter develops the topic beyond a simple fact or definition.

Question 9

What common mistake should a student avoid while answering a question from Glimpses of India?

Answer:

Do not give only a conclusion. Explain the reasoning with a correct detail, such as: Tea is both an everyday drink and a product with a long history.

Question 10

Compare the first and second important ideas in Glimpses of India.

Answer:

The first idea is: The baker's daily arrival, traditional dress, and bread are woven into village routines and celebrations. The second idea is: Coorg is presented through its evergreen landscape, coffee estates, wildlife, and hospitality. A complete comparison states both the difference and the connection between them.

Question 11

Show a cause-and-effect link from Glimpses of India.

Answer:

Cause or starting point: The baker's daily arrival, traditional dress, and bread are woven into village routines and celebrations. Effect or outcome: Coorg is presented through its evergreen landscape, coffee estates, wildlife, and hospitality. Use connecting words such as 'therefore', 'as a result', or 'thus'.

Question 12

What is the most useful sequence for explaining the main content of Glimpses of India?

Answer:

A clear sequence is: The baker's daily arrival, traditional dress, and bread are woven into village routines and celebrations. Next, Coorg is presented through its evergreen landscape, coffee estates, wildlife, and hospitality. Finally, Tea is both an everyday drink and a product with a long history.

Glimpses of India - Continued

Question 13

Give a 40-50 word answer outline for an important question from Glimpses of India.

Answer:

Start with the direct answer: The baker's daily arrival, traditional dress, and bread are woven into village routines and celebrations. Add one supporting point: Coorg is presented through its evergreen landscape, coffee estates, wildlife, and hospitality. End with the outcome or message: Tea is both an everyday drink and a product with a long history.

Question 14

How should you support an English literature answer from Glimpses of India?

Answer:

Use a relevant incident, character action, theme, or poetic image: The baker's daily arrival, traditional dress, and bread are woven into village routines and celebrations. Then explain what it reveals about the character, situation, or message.

Question 15

How can an examiner see that you understand, rather than memorise, Glimpses of India?

Answer:

Connect the idea to its reason or result. For instance: Coorg is presented through its evergreen landscape, coffee estates, wildlife, and hospitality. Then explain why this point matters in the chapter's context.

Question 16

State one inference that can be drawn from the main situation or concept in Glimpses of India.

Answer:

A sound inference is that tea is both an everyday drink and a product with a long history. This inference must be supported by a relevant point from the chapter.

Question 17

Frame a short competency-based response using the first two ideas in Glimpses of India.

Answer:

Apply the concept by first stating: The baker's daily arrival, traditional dress, and bread are woven into village routines and celebrations. Then justify the response with: Coorg is presented through its evergreen landscape, coffee estates, wildlife, and hospitality.

Question 18

What would make an answer from Glimpses of India incomplete?

Answer:

An answer is incomplete if it omits the explanation or final implication. Include both: The baker's daily arrival, traditional dress, and bread are woven into village routines and celebrations. Also add: Tea is both an everyday drink and a product with a long history.

Glimpses of India - Continued

Question 19

Prepare an Assertion-Reason style explanation based on Glimpses of India.

Answer:

Assertion: The baker's daily arrival, traditional dress, and bread are woven into village routines and celebrations. Reason: Coorg is presented through its evergreen landscape, coffee estates, wildlife, and hospitality. Check whether the reason actually explains the assertion before choosing an option.

Question 20

How should you justify an answer from Glimpses of India in two clear steps?

Answer:

Step 1: state the concept or event - The baker's daily arrival, traditional dress, and bread are woven into village routines and celebrations. Step 2: support it with the explanation or result - Coorg is presented through its evergreen landscape, coffee estates, wildlife, and hospitality.

Question 21

What answer structure is suitable for a 3-mark question from Glimpses of India?

Answer:

Use three connected points: The baker's daily arrival, traditional dress, and bread are woven into village routines and celebrations. Coorg is presented through its evergreen landscape, coffee estates, wildlife, and hospitality. Tea is both an everyday drink and a product with a long history. Keep the points specific and write them in a logical order.

Question 22

What answer structure is suitable for a 5-mark question from Glimpses of India?

Answer:

Give an introduction, develop these key points - The baker's daily arrival, traditional dress, and bread are woven into village routines and celebrations. Coorg is presented through its evergreen landscape, coffee estates, wildlife, and hospitality. - and close with: Tea is both an everyday drink and a product with a long history. Add a diagram, equation, example, or textual reference where relevant.

Question 23

How can the ideas in Glimpses of India be applied to a new situation or case study?

Answer:

Identify the relevant principle first: The baker's daily arrival, traditional dress, and bread are woven into village routines and celebrations. Then use the chapter's reasoning to explain the case: Coorg is presented through its evergreen landscape, coffee estates, wildlife, and hospitality.

Question 24

Which detail from Glimpses of India is most likely to earn an extra mark when explained correctly?

Answer:

A useful detail is: Tea is both an everyday drink and a product with a long history. Explain it in context instead of using it as an isolated statement.

Glimpses of India - Continued

Question 25

Write a brief concluding statement for an answer on Glimpses of India.

Answer:

A suitable conclusion is: Tea is both an everyday drink and a product with a long history. This conclusion should follow naturally from the explanation rather than introduce a new point.

Question 26

Make a three-point revision note for Glimpses of India.

Answer:

1. The baker's daily arrival, traditional dress, and bread are woven into village routines and celebrations. 2. Coorg is presented through its evergreen landscape, coffee estates, wildlife, and hospitality. 3. Tea is both an everyday drink and a product with a long history. Revise these points with the chapter's examples, terms, and practice questions.

Question 27

How would you self-check an answer from Glimpses of India before submitting it?

Answer:

Check that you have answered the exact question, used the key idea - The baker's daily arrival, traditional dress, and bread are woven into village routines and celebrations. - and supported it with a reason, example, calculation, or outcome such as: Coorg is presented through its evergreen landscape, coffee estates, wildlife, and hospitality.

Question 28

Why does Glimpses of India remain important for revision?

Answer:

It combines factual recall with explanation and application. The main takeaways are: The baker's daily arrival, traditional dress, and bread are woven into village routines and celebrations. Coorg is presented through its evergreen landscape, coffee estates, wildlife, and hospitality. Tea is both an everyday drink and a product with a long history.

Question 29

Create a final 60-80 word answer plan for a long question from Glimpses of India.

Answer:

Opening: The baker's daily arrival, traditional dress, and bread are woven into village routines and celebrations. Development: Coorg is presented through its evergreen landscape, coffee estates, wildlife, and hospitality. Conclusion: Tea is both an everyday drink and a product with a long history. Use complete sentences and include all required evidence, steps, or references.

Question 30

What is one last-minute revision question you should ask yourself about Glimpses of India?

Answer:

Ask: 'Can I explain why this is true or important?' A correct self-answer should include: The baker's daily arrival, traditional dress, and bread are woven into village routines and celebrations. and Coorg is presented through its evergreen landscape, coffee estates, wildlife, and hospitality.

Sources: CBSE English curriculum 2026-27; CBSE Class X sample papers and marking schemes 2026-27; NCERT textbooks.