

30 CHAPTERWISE IMPORTANT QUESTIONS

English Language and Literature (184) | CBSE 2026-27

Stories About Flying

First Flight - prose | Board-examinable literature

30 original revision questions with answers: short-answer, competency, assertion-reason and long-answer practice. Set is based on the current syllabus and official question-paper style; it is not a prediction or an official CBSE paper.

Question 1

How does the young seagull finally overcome his fear of flying?

Answer:

His mother tempts him with food and then lets him fall towards the sea. Hunger makes him spread his wings instinctively; he discovers that he can fly and gains confidence.

Question 2

Why is the pilot in 'The Black Aeroplane' puzzled after landing safely?

Answer:

A mysterious black aeroplane guided him through the storm, but the control tower reports that no other aircraft was in the sky. The unexplained rescue leaves the pilot wondering who helped him.

Question 3

Compare the role of fear in the two flying stories.

Answer:

The seagull's fear is overcome through a first successful flight and his family's encouragement. The pilot faces danger in a storm and trusts an unknown guide; both stories show action replacing helplessness.

Question 4

What is the central idea or skill tested in Stories About Flying?

Answer:

The central focus is: His mother tempts him with food and then lets him fall towards the sea. This is the starting point for a strong answer from this chapter.

Question 5

Write two relevant points for a short answer based on Stories About Flying.

Answer:

First point: His mother tempts him with food and then lets him fall towards the sea. Second point: A mysterious black aeroplane guided him through the storm, but the control tower reports that no other aircraft was in the sky. Link the two points clearly instead of listing them without explanation.

Question 6

How does the first key idea in Stories About Flying lead to an important result or conclusion?

Answer:

Begin with the key idea: His mother tempts him with food and then lets him fall towards the sea. Then connect it to the result: A mysterious black aeroplane guided him through the storm, but the control tower reports that no other aircraft was in the sky.

Stories About Flying - Continued

Question 7

What evidence, calculation, incident or concept best supports the first main idea in Stories About Flying?

Answer:

Use this supporting detail: His mother tempts him with food and then lets him fall towards the sea. Hunger makes him spread his wings instinctively; he discovers that he can fly and gains confidence. The relevant detail should be stated before giving the final conclusion.

Question 8

Explain the importance of the second major idea in Stories About Flying.

Answer:

A mysterious black aeroplane guided him through the storm, but the control tower reports that no other aircraft was in the sky. The unexplained rescue leaves the pilot wondering who helped him. Its importance lies in showing how the chapter develops the topic beyond a simple fact or definition.

Question 9

What common mistake should a student avoid while answering a question from Stories About Flying?

Answer:

Do not give only a conclusion. Explain the reasoning with a correct detail, such as: The seagull's fear is overcome through a first successful flight and his family's encouragement.

Question 10

Compare the first and second important ideas in Stories About Flying.

Answer:

The first idea is: His mother tempts him with food and then lets him fall towards the sea. The second idea is: A mysterious black aeroplane guided him through the storm, but the control tower reports that no other aircraft was in the sky. A complete comparison states both the difference and the connection between them.

Question 11

Show a cause-and-effect link from Stories About Flying.

Answer:

Cause or starting point: His mother tempts him with food and then lets him fall towards the sea. Effect or outcome: A mysterious black aeroplane guided him through the storm, but the control tower reports that no other aircraft was in the sky. Use connecting words such as 'therefore', 'as a result', or 'thus'.

Question 12

What is the most useful sequence for explaining the main content of Stories About Flying?

Answer:

A clear sequence is: His mother tempts him with food and then lets him fall towards the sea. Next, A mysterious black aeroplane guided him through the storm, but the control tower reports that no other aircraft was in the sky. Finally, The seagull's fear is overcome through a first successful flight and his family's encouragement.

Stories About Flying - Continued

Question 13

Give a 40-50 word answer outline for an important question from Stories About Flying.

Answer:

Start with the direct answer: His mother tempts him with food and then lets him fall towards the sea. Add one supporting point: A mysterious black aeroplane guided him through the storm, but the control tower reports that no other aircraft was in the sky. End with the outcome or message: The seagull's fear is overcome through a first successful flight and his family's encouragement.

Question 14

How should you support an English literature answer from Stories About Flying?

Answer:

Use a relevant incident, character action, theme, or poetic image: His mother tempts him with food and then lets him fall towards the sea. Then explain what it reveals about the character, situation, or message.

Question 15

How can an examiner see that you understand, rather than memorise, Stories About Flying?

Answer:

Connect the idea to its reason or result. For instance: A mysterious black aeroplane guided him through the storm, but the control tower reports that no other aircraft was in the sky. Then explain why this point matters in the chapter's context.

Question 16

State one inference that can be drawn from the main situation or concept in Stories About Flying.

Answer:

A sound inference is that the seagull's fear is overcome through a first successful flight and his family's encouragement. This inference must be supported by a relevant point from the chapter.

Question 17

Frame a short competency-based response using the first two ideas in Stories About Flying.

Answer:

Apply the concept by first stating: His mother tempts him with food and then lets him fall towards the sea. Then justify the response with: A mysterious black aeroplane guided him through the storm, but the control tower reports that no other aircraft was in the sky.

Question 18

What would make an answer from Stories About Flying incomplete?

Answer:

An answer is incomplete if it omits the explanation or final implication. Include both: His mother tempts him with food and then lets him fall towards the sea. Also add: The seagull's fear is overcome through a first successful flight and his family's encouragement.

Stories About Flying - Continued

Question 19

Prepare an Assertion-Reason style explanation based on Stories About Flying.

Answer:

Assertion: His mother tempts him with food and then lets him fall towards the sea. Reason: A mysterious black aeroplane guided him through the storm, but the control tower reports that no other aircraft was in the sky. Check whether the reason actually explains the assertion before choosing an option.

Question 20

How should you justify an answer from Stories About Flying in two clear steps?

Answer:

Step 1: state the concept or event - His mother tempts him with food and then lets him fall towards the sea. Step 2: support it with the explanation or result - A mysterious black aeroplane guided him through the storm, but the control tower reports that no other aircraft was in the sky.

Question 21

What answer structure is suitable for a 3-mark question from Stories About Flying?

Answer:

Use three connected points: His mother tempts him with food and then lets him fall towards the sea. A mysterious black aeroplane guided him through the storm, but the control tower reports that no other aircraft was in the sky. The seagull's fear is overcome through a first successful flight and his family's encouragement. Keep the points specific and write them in a logical order.

Question 22

What answer structure is suitable for a 5-mark question from Stories About Flying?

Answer:

Give an introduction, develop these key points - His mother tempts him with food and then lets him fall towards the sea. A mysterious black aeroplane guided him through the storm, but the control tower reports that no other aircraft was in the sky. - and close with: The seagull's fear is overcome through a first successful flight and his family's encouragement. Add a diagram, equation, example, or textual reference where relevant.

Question 23

How can the ideas in Stories About Flying be applied to a new situation or case study?

Answer:

Identify the relevant principle first: His mother tempts him with food and then lets him fall towards the sea. Then use the chapter's reasoning to explain the case: A mysterious black aeroplane guided him through the storm, but the control tower reports that no other aircraft was in the sky.

Question 24

Which detail from Stories About Flying is most likely to earn an extra mark when explained correctly?

Answer:

A useful detail is: The seagull's fear is overcome through a first successful flight and his family's encouragement. Explain it in context instead of using it as an isolated statement.

Stories About Flying - Continued

Question 25

Write a brief concluding statement for an answer on Stories About Flying.

Answer:

A suitable conclusion is: The seagull's fear is overcome through a first successful flight and his family's encouragement. This conclusion should follow naturally from the explanation rather than introduce a new point.

Question 26

Make a three-point revision note for Stories About Flying.

Answer:

1. His mother tempts him with food and then lets him fall towards the sea. 2. A mysterious black aeroplane guided him through the storm, but the control tower reports that no other aircraft was in the sky. 3. The seagull's fear is overcome through a first successful flight and his family's encouragement. Revise these points with the chapter's examples, terms, and practice questions.

Question 27

How would you self-check an answer from Stories About Flying before submitting it?

Answer:

Check that you have answered the exact question, used the key idea - His mother tempts him with food and then lets him fall towards the sea. - and supported it with a reason, example, calculation, or outcome such as: A mysterious black aeroplane guided him through the storm, but the control tower reports that no other aircraft was in the sky.

Question 28

Why does Stories About Flying remain important for revision?

Answer:

It combines factual recall with explanation and application. The main takeaways are: His mother tempts him with food and then lets him fall towards the sea. A mysterious black aeroplane guided him through the storm, but the control tower reports that no other aircraft was in the sky. The seagull's fear is overcome through a first successful flight and his family's encouragement.

Question 29

Create a final 60-80 word answer plan for a long question from Stories About Flying.

Answer:

Opening: His mother tempts him with food and then lets him fall towards the sea. Development: A mysterious black aeroplane guided him through the storm, but the control tower reports that no other aircraft was in the sky. Conclusion: The seagull's fear is overcome through a first successful flight and his family's encouragement. Use complete sentences and include all required evidence, steps, or references.

Question 30

What is one last-minute revision question you should ask yourself about Stories About Flying?

Answer:

Ask: 'Can I explain why this is true or important?' A correct self-answer should include: His mother tempts him with food and then lets him fall towards the sea. and A mysterious black aeroplane guided him through the storm, but the control tower reports that no other aircraft was in the sky.

Sources: CBSE English curriculum 2026-27; CBSE Class X sample papers and marking schemes 2026-27; NCERT textbooks.