

30 CHAPTERWISE IMPORTANT QUESTIONS

English Language and Literature (184) | CBSE 2026-27

The Ball Poem

First Flight - poem | Board-examinable literature

30 original revision questions with answers: short-answer, competency, assertion-reason and long-answer practice. Set is based on the current syllabus and official question-paper style; it is not a prediction or an official CBSE paper.

Question 1

Why does the poet not offer the boy another ball?

Answer:

A replacement would not restore the particular ball or the memories attached to it. The boy needs to experience loss and begin learning how to cope with it.

Question 2

What does the ball come to represent for the boy?

Answer:

It represents a valued possession and the feelings connected with childhood. Losing it is his first meaningful encounter with grief and responsibility.

Question 3

What life lesson is the boy beginning to learn?

Answer:

People cannot keep every possession or undo every loss. Maturity includes accepting what is gone and learning to live with sadness rather than escaping it.

Question 4

What is the central idea or skill tested in The Ball Poem?

Answer:

The central focus is: A replacement would not restore the particular ball or the memories attached to it. This is the starting point for a strong answer from this chapter.

Question 5

Write two relevant points for a short answer based on The Ball Poem.

Answer:

First point: A replacement would not restore the particular ball or the memories attached to it. Second point: It represents a valued possession and the feelings connected with childhood. Link the two points clearly instead of listing them without explanation.

Question 6

How does the first key idea in The Ball Poem lead to an important result or conclusion?

Answer:

Begin with the key idea: A replacement would not restore the particular ball or the memories attached to it. Then connect it to the result: It represents a valued possession and the feelings connected with childhood.

The Ball Poem - Continued

Question 7

What evidence, calculation, incident or concept best supports the first main idea in The Ball Poem?

Answer:

Use this supporting detail: A replacement would not restore the particular ball or the memories attached to it. The boy needs to experience loss and begin learning how to cope with it. The relevant detail should be stated before giving the final conclusion.

Question 8

Explain the importance of the second major idea in The Ball Poem.

Answer:

It represents a valued possession and the feelings connected with childhood. Losing it is his first meaningful encounter with grief and responsibility. Its importance lies in showing how the chapter develops the topic beyond a simple fact or definition.

Question 9

What common mistake should a student avoid while answering a question from The Ball Poem?

Answer:

Do not give only a conclusion. Explain the reasoning with a correct detail, such as: People cannot keep every possession or undo every loss.

Question 10

Compare the first and second important ideas in The Ball Poem.

Answer:

The first idea is: A replacement would not restore the particular ball or the memories attached to it. The second idea is: It represents a valued possession and the feelings connected with childhood. A complete comparison states both the difference and the connection between them.

Question 11

Show a cause-and-effect link from The Ball Poem.

Answer:

Cause or starting point: A replacement would not restore the particular ball or the memories attached to it. Effect or outcome: It represents a valued possession and the feelings connected with childhood. Use connecting words such as 'therefore', 'as a result', or 'thus'.

Question 12

What is the most useful sequence for explaining the main content of The Ball Poem?

Answer:

A clear sequence is: A replacement would not restore the particular ball or the memories attached to it. Next, It represents a valued possession and the feelings connected with childhood. Finally, People cannot keep every possession or undo every loss.

The Ball Poem - Continued

Question 13

Give a 40-50 word answer outline for an important question from The Ball Poem.

Answer:

Start with the direct answer: A replacement would not restore the particular ball or the memories attached to it. Add one supporting point: It represents a valued possession and the feelings connected with childhood. End with the outcome or message: People cannot keep every possession or undo every loss.

Question 14

How should you support an English literature answer from The Ball Poem?

Answer:

Use a relevant incident, character action, theme, or poetic image: A replacement would not restore the particular ball or the memories attached to it. Then explain what it reveals about the character, situation, or message.

Question 15

How can an examiner see that you understand, rather than memorise, The Ball Poem?

Answer:

Connect the idea to its reason or result. For instance: It represents a valued possession and the feelings connected with childhood. Then explain why this point matters in the chapter's context.

Question 16

State one inference that can be drawn from the main situation or concept in The Ball Poem.

Answer:

A sound inference is that people cannot keep every possession or undo every loss. This inference must be supported by a relevant point from the chapter.

Question 17

Frame a short competency-based response using the first two ideas in The Ball Poem.

Answer:

Apply the concept by first stating: A replacement would not restore the particular ball or the memories attached to it. Then justify the response with: It represents a valued possession and the feelings connected with childhood.

Question 18

What would make an answer from The Ball Poem incomplete?

Answer:

An answer is incomplete if it omits the explanation or final implication. Include both: A replacement would not restore the particular ball or the memories attached to it. Also add: People cannot keep every possession or undo every loss.

Question 19

Prepare an Assertion-Reason style explanation based on The Ball Poem.

Answer:

Assertion: A replacement would not restore the particular ball or the memories attached to it. Reason: It represents a valued possession and the feelings connected with childhood. Check whether the reason actually explains the assertion before choosing an option.

The Ball Poem - Continued

Question 20

How should you justify an answer from The Ball Poem in two clear steps?

Answer:

Step 1: state the concept or event - A replacement would not restore the particular ball or the memories attached to it. Step 2: support it with the explanation or result - It represents a valued possession and the feelings connected with childhood.

Question 21

What answer structure is suitable for a 3-mark question from The Ball Poem?

Answer:

Use three connected points: A replacement would not restore the particular ball or the memories attached to it. It represents a valued possession and the feelings connected with childhood. People cannot keep every possession or undo every loss. Keep the points specific and write them in a logical order.

Question 22

What answer structure is suitable for a 5-mark question from The Ball Poem?

Answer:

Give an introduction, develop these key points - A replacement would not restore the particular ball or the memories attached to it. It represents a valued possession and the feelings connected with childhood. - and close with: People cannot keep every possession or undo every loss. Add a diagram, equation, example, or textual reference where relevant.

Question 23

How can the ideas in The Ball Poem be applied to a new situation or case study?

Answer:

Identify the relevant principle first: A replacement would not restore the particular ball or the memories attached to it. Then use the chapter's reasoning to explain the case: It represents a valued possession and the feelings connected with childhood.

Question 24

Which detail from The Ball Poem is most likely to earn an extra mark when explained correctly?

Answer:

A useful detail is: People cannot keep every possession or undo every loss. Explain it in context instead of using it as an isolated statement.

Question 25

Write a brief concluding statement for an answer on The Ball Poem.

Answer:

A suitable conclusion is: People cannot keep every possession or undo every loss. This conclusion should follow naturally from the explanation rather than introduce a new point.

Question 26

Make a three-point revision note for The Ball Poem.

Answer:

1. A replacement would not restore the particular ball or the memories attached to it. 2. It represents a valued possession and the feelings connected with childhood. 3. People cannot keep every possession or undo every loss. Revise these points with the chapter's examples, terms, and practice questions.

The Ball Poem - Continued

Question 27

How would you self-check an answer from The Ball Poem before submitting it?

Answer:

Check that you have answered the exact question, used the key idea - A replacement would not restore the particular ball or the memories attached to it. - and supported it with a reason, example, calculation, or outcome such as: It represents a valued possession and the feelings connected with childhood.

Question 28

Why does The Ball Poem remain important for revision?

Answer:

It combines factual recall with explanation and application. The main takeaways are: A replacement would not restore the particular ball or the memories attached to it. It represents a valued possession and the feelings connected with childhood. People cannot keep every possession or undo every loss.

Question 29

Create a final 60-80 word answer plan for a long question from The Ball Poem.

Answer:

Opening: A replacement would not restore the particular ball or the memories attached to it.

Development: It represents a valued possession and the feelings connected with childhood. Conclusion: People cannot keep every possession or undo every loss. Use complete sentences and include all required evidence, steps, or references.

Question 30

What is one last-minute revision question you should ask yourself about The Ball Poem?

Answer:

Ask: 'Can I explain why this is true or important?' A correct self-answer should include: A replacement would not restore the particular ball or the memories attached to it. and It represents a valued possession and the feelings connected with childhood.

Sources: CBSE English curriculum 2026-27; CBSE Class X sample papers and marking schemes 2026-27; NCERT textbooks.