The Proposal

First Flight - play | Board-examinable literature

30 original revision questions with answers: short-answer, competency, assertion-reason and long-answer practice. Set is based on the current syllabus and official question-paper style; it is not a prediction or an official CBSE paper.

Question 1

Why does Lomov visit Chubukov, and why does his proposal go wrong?

Answer:

Lomov comes to ask for Natalya's hand, but he and Natalya quarrel over land and dogs. Their pride and short tempers repeatedly distract them from the purpose of his visit.

Question 2

How does Chubukov's behaviour add to the humour of the play?

Answer:

He quickly shifts from welcoming Lomov as a prospective son-in-law to insulting him during arguments, then eagerly pushes the marriage once the proposal is revealed. His self-interest fuels the comedy.

Question 3

What does the play satirise through the characters' quarrels?

Answer:

It pokes fun at vanity, materialism, and the idea that marriage is mainly a practical arrangement. The characters argue over trivial claims even while trying to arrange a serious commitment.

Question 4

What is the central idea or skill tested in The Proposal?

Answer:

The central focus is: Lomov comes to ask for Natalya's hand, but he and Natalya quarrel over land and dogs. This is the starting point for a strong answer from this chapter.

Question 5

Write two relevant points for a short answer based on The Proposal.

Answer:

First point: Lomov comes to ask for Natalya's hand, but he and Natalya quarrel over land and dogs.

Second point: He quickly shifts from welcoming Lomov as a prospective son-in-law to insulting him during arguments, then eagerly pushes the marriage once the proposal is revealed. Link the two points clearly instead of listing them without explanation.

Question 6

How does the first key idea in The Proposal lead to an important result or conclusion?

Answer:

Begin with the key idea: Lomov comes to ask for Natalya's hand, but he and Natalya quarrel over land and dogs. Then connect it to the result: He quickly shifts from welcoming Lomov as a prospective son-in-law to insulting him during arguments, then eagerly pushes the marriage once the proposal is revealed.

Question 7

What evidence, calculation, incident or concept best supports the first main idea in The Proposal?

Answer:

Use this supporting detail: Lomov comes to ask for Natalya's hand, but he and Natalya quarrel over land and dogs. Their pride and short tempers repeatedly distract them from the purpose of his visit. The relevant detail should be stated before giving the final conclusion.

Question 8

Explain the importance of the second major idea in The Proposal.

Answer:

He quickly shifts from welcoming Lomov as a prospective son-in-law to insulting him during arguments, then eagerly pushes the marriage once the proposal is revealed. His self-interest fuels the comedy. Its importance lies in showing how the chapter develops the topic beyond a simple fact or definition.

Question 9

What common mistake should a student avoid while answering a question from The Proposal?

Answer:

Do not give only a conclusion. Explain the reasoning with a correct detail, such as: It pokes fun at vanity, materialism, and the idea that marriage is mainly a practical arrangement.

Question 10

Compare the first and second important ideas in The Proposal.

Answer:

The first idea is: Lomov comes to ask for Natalya's hand, but he and Natalya quarrel over land and dogs. The second idea is: He quickly shifts from welcoming Lomov as a prospective son-in-law to insulting him during arguments, then eagerly pushes the marriage once the proposal is revealed. A complete comparison states both the difference and the connection between them.

Question 11

Show a cause-and-effect link from The Proposal.

Answer:
