First Flight - poem | Board-examinable literature

30 original revision questions with answers: short-answer, competency, assertion-reason and long-answer practice. Set is based on the current syllabus and official question-paper style; it is not a prediction or an official CBSE paper.

Question 1

Why do the other characters call Custard a coward, and how is their judgment challenged?

Answer:

Custard asks for a safe cage, so the others mock him. When a pirate threatens them, Custard alone faces the danger, showing that appearance and boasting do not prove courage.

Question 2

How does the poem use humour to build its message?

Answer:

Its playful rhymes, exaggerated characters, and comic reversal make the story entertaining. The ending exposes the difference between loud claims of bravery and real action.

Question 3

What is the poem's view of courage?

Answer:

Courage is shown through what someone does in a dangerous moment, not through how confidently they speak beforehand. Custard's actions overturn the group's assumptions.

Question 4

What is the central idea or skill tested in The Tale of Custard the Dragon?

Answer:

The central focus is: Custard asks for a safe cage, so the others mock him. This is the starting point for a strong answer from this chapter.
