

30 CHAPTERWISE IMPORTANT QUESTIONS

Social Science (087) | CBSE 2026-27

Power-sharing

Political Science | Board-examinable

30 original revision questions with answers: short-answer, competency, assertion-reason and long-answer practice. Set is based on the current syllabus and official question-paper style; it is not a prediction or an official CBSE paper.

Question 1

Why is power-sharing considered desirable in a democracy?

Answer:

It reduces the risk that one group will dominate others and helps manage social differences peacefully. It is also morally democratic because people affected by decisions should have a voice.

Question 2

How do Belgium and Sri Lanka illustrate different approaches to diversity?

Answer:

Belgium accommodated linguistic groups through power-sharing arrangements. Sri Lanka's majoritarian policies favoured the Sinhala majority, alienating Tamils and contributing to conflict.

Question 3

Describe four common forms of power-sharing.

Answer:

Power may be divided among branches of government, levels of government, social groups, and political parties or pressure groups. Each form creates checks or gives more people a role in decisions.

Question 4

What is the central idea or skill tested in Power-sharing?

Answer:

The central focus is: It reduces the risk that one group will dominate others and helps manage social differences peacefully. This is the starting point for a strong answer from this chapter.

Question 5

Write two relevant points for a short answer based on Power-sharing.

Answer:

First point: It reduces the risk that one group will dominate others and helps manage social differences peacefully. Second point: Belgium accommodated linguistic groups through power-sharing arrangements. Link the two points clearly instead of listing them without explanation.

Question 6

How does the first key idea in Power-sharing lead to an important result or conclusion?

Answer:

Begin with the key idea: It reduces the risk that one group will dominate others and helps manage social differences peacefully. Then connect it to the result: Belgium accommodated linguistic groups through power-sharing arrangements.

Power-sharing - Continued

Question 7

What evidence, calculation, incident or concept best supports the first main idea in Power-sharing?

Answer:

Use this supporting detail: It reduces the risk that one group will dominate others and helps manage social differences peacefully. It is also morally democratic because people affected by decisions should have a voice. The relevant detail should be stated before giving the final conclusion.

Question 8

Explain the importance of the second major idea in Power-sharing.

Answer:

Belgium accommodated linguistic groups through power-sharing arrangements. Sri Lanka's majoritarian policies favoured the Sinhala majority, alienating Tamils and contributing to conflict. Its importance lies in showing how the chapter develops the topic beyond a simple fact or definition.

Question 9

What common mistake should a student avoid while answering a question from Power-sharing?

Answer:

Do not give only a conclusion. Explain the reasoning with a correct detail, such as: Power may be divided among branches of government, levels of government, social groups, and political parties or pressure groups.

Question 10

Compare the first and second important ideas in Power-sharing.

Answer:

The first idea is: It reduces the risk that one group will dominate others and helps manage social differences peacefully. The second idea is: Belgium accommodated linguistic groups through power-sharing arrangements. A complete comparison states both the difference and the connection between them.

Question 11

Show a cause-and-effect link from Power-sharing.

Answer:

Cause or starting point: It reduces the risk that one group will dominate others and helps manage social differences peacefully. Effect or outcome: Belgium accommodated linguistic groups through power-sharing arrangements. Use connecting words such as 'therefore', 'as a result', or 'thus'.

Question 12

What is the most useful sequence for explaining the main content of Power-sharing?

Answer:

A clear sequence is: It reduces the risk that one group will dominate others and helps manage social differences peacefully. Next, Belgium accommodated linguistic groups through power-sharing arrangements. Finally, Power may be divided among branches of government, levels of government, social groups, and political parties or pressure groups.

Power-sharing - Continued

Question 13

Give a 40-50 word answer outline for an important question from Power-sharing.

Answer:

Start with the direct answer: It reduces the risk that one group will dominate others and helps manage social differences peacefully. Add one supporting point: Belgium accommodated linguistic groups through power-sharing arrangements. End with the outcome or message: Power may be divided among branches of government, levels of government, social groups, and political parties or pressure groups.

Question 14

How should you support an answer from Power-sharing with a relevant example or fact?

Answer:

Use a precise example or explanation: It reduces the risk that one group will dominate others and helps manage social differences peacefully. State the fact, then explain its significance rather than leaving it as a name or date alone.

Question 15

How can an examiner see that you understand, rather than memorise, Power-sharing?

Answer:

Connect the idea to its reason or result. For instance: Belgium accommodated linguistic groups through power-sharing arrangements. Then explain why this point matters in the chapter's context.

Question 16

State one inference that can be drawn from the main situation or concept in Power-sharing.

Answer:

A sound inference is that power may be divided among branches of government, levels of government, social groups, and political parties or pressure groups. This inference must be supported by a relevant point from the chapter.

Question 17

Frame a short competency-based response using the first two ideas in Power-sharing.

Answer:

Apply the concept by first stating: It reduces the risk that one group will dominate others and helps manage social differences peacefully. Then justify the response with: Belgium accommodated linguistic groups through power-sharing arrangements.

Question 18

What would make an answer from Power-sharing incomplete?

Answer:

An answer is incomplete if it omits the explanation or final implication. Include both: It reduces the risk that one group will dominate others and helps manage social differences peacefully. Also add: Power may be divided among branches of government, levels of government, social groups, and political parties or pressure groups.

Power-sharing - Continued

Question 19

Prepare an Assertion-Reason style explanation based on Power-sharing.

Answer:

Assertion: It reduces the risk that one group will dominate others and helps manage social differences peacefully. Reason: Belgium accommodated linguistic groups through power-sharing arrangements. Check whether the reason actually explains the assertion before choosing an option.

Question 20

How should you justify an answer from Power-sharing in two clear steps?

Answer:

Step 1: state the concept or event - It reduces the risk that one group will dominate others and helps manage social differences peacefully. Step 2: support it with the explanation or result - Belgium accommodated linguistic groups through power-sharing arrangements.

Question 21

What answer structure is suitable for a 3-mark question from Power-sharing?

Answer:

Use three connected points: It reduces the risk that one group will dominate others and helps manage social differences peacefully. Belgium accommodated linguistic groups through power-sharing arrangements. Power may be divided among branches of government, levels of government, social groups, and political parties or pressure groups. Keep the points specific and write them in a logical order.

Question 22

What answer structure is suitable for a 5-mark question from Power-sharing?

Answer:

Give an introduction, develop these key points - It reduces the risk that one group will dominate others and helps manage social differences peacefully. Belgium accommodated linguistic groups through power-sharing arrangements. - and close with: Power may be divided among branches of government, levels of government, social groups, and political parties or pressure groups. Add a diagram, equation, example, or textual reference where relevant.

Question 23

How can the ideas in Power-sharing be applied to a new situation or case study?

Answer:

Identify the relevant principle first: It reduces the risk that one group will dominate others and helps manage social differences peacefully. Then use the chapter's reasoning to explain the case: Belgium accommodated linguistic groups through power-sharing arrangements.

Question 24

Which detail from Power-sharing is most likely to earn an extra mark when explained correctly?

Answer:

A useful detail is: Power may be divided among branches of government, levels of government, social groups, and political parties or pressure groups. Explain it in context instead of using it as an isolated statement.

Power-sharing - Continued

Question 25

Write a brief concluding statement for an answer on Power-sharing.

Answer:

A suitable conclusion is: Power may be divided among branches of government, levels of government, social groups, and political parties or pressure groups. This conclusion should follow naturally from the explanation rather than introduce a new point.

Question 26

Make a three-point revision note for Power-sharing.

Answer:

1. It reduces the risk that one group will dominate others and helps manage social differences peacefully.
2. Belgium accommodated linguistic groups through power-sharing arrangements. 3. Power may be divided among branches of government, levels of government, social groups, and political parties or pressure groups. Revise these points with the chapter's examples, terms, and practice questions.

Question 27

How would you self-check an answer from Power-sharing before submitting it?

Answer:

Check that you have answered the exact question, used the key idea - It reduces the risk that one group will dominate others and helps manage social differences peacefully. - and supported it with a reason, example, calculation, or outcome such as: Belgium accommodated linguistic groups through power-sharing arrangements.

Question 28

Why does Power-sharing remain important for revision?

Answer:

It combines factual recall with explanation and application. The main takeaways are: It reduces the risk that one group will dominate others and helps manage social differences peacefully. Belgium accommodated linguistic groups through power-sharing arrangements. Power may be divided among branches of government, levels of government, social groups, and political parties or pressure groups.

Question 29

Create a final 60-80 word answer plan for a long question from Power-sharing.

Answer:

Opening: It reduces the risk that one group will dominate others and helps manage social differences peacefully. Development: Belgium accommodated linguistic groups through power-sharing arrangements. Conclusion: Power may be divided among branches of government, levels of government, social groups, and political parties or pressure groups. Use complete sentences and include all required evidence, steps, or references.

Question 30

What is one last-minute revision question you should ask yourself about Power-sharing?

Answer:

Ask: 'Can I explain why this is true or important?' A correct self-answer should include: It reduces the risk that one group will dominate others and helps manage social differences peacefully. and Belgium accommodated linguistic groups through power-sharing arrangements.

Sources: CBSE Social Science curriculum 2026-27; CBSE Class X sample papers and marking schemes 2026-27; NCERT textbooks.